

GUEST SPEAKERS

Anthony Walker has dedicated himself to the spreading of the gospel for nearly 30 years. Not just a preacher but a spiritual leader, his roles have ranged from song leader, youth worker, bible school teacher, and now minister. For the past 17 years, as the minister at Highway 231 Church of Christ in Murfreesboro, TN. Under his leadership, the congregation has not only grown in numbers but also in commitment and service. Anthony's voice resonates beyond the walls of his church. Renowned as a compelling speaker, he's often invited to gospel meetings, workshops, and lectureships. As a regional director and author for Renew.org, he co-hosts the insightful podcast, 'Scripture in Black and White.' But, Anthony's most cherished roles are at home. Married to Jenny for 15 years, they joyfully parent their two children, Remington and Reign.

Dr. Russell Bone started working full-time in ministry in 1984. He has ministered with the Echo Meadows Church of Christ in Oregon, OH, and the Parkside Church of Christ in Dearborn Heights, MI, and is currently serving the Lincoln Park Church of Christ in Lincoln Park, MI. He has been an adjunct professor at Rochester Christian University since 1998. Dr. Bone holds an undergraduate degree from the University of Toledo (B.Ed.), a Master's degree from International Seminary (M.Th.), a Master's degree from Harding University Graduate School of Religion (M.A.R.), and a Doctor of Ministry (D.Min.) from Drew University in Madison, NJ. He has led several tours to the Holy Land, viewed the empty tomb, and believes that the resurrection is a fact. Because of this, he preaches about the carpenter from Galilee and teaches and does Bible Studies with many students. God has blessed him with a wonderful wife, Fran, two wonderful children, Heather and Russell, and a grandson, Drew.
