Matthew 18:12

Reaching out to meet your needs through His love

FROM OUR SHEPHERDS

*"I don't know about tomorrow
I just live from day to day
I don't borrow from the sunshine
For its skies may turn to gray."*

Several years ago, as a young Christian man, I thought I had to get tougher when the skies turned gray. I was sharing my thoughts with other Christians that something we could all do was "pick ourselves up by our bootstraps..." in other words, "get tougher" to better handle stormy situations.

*"I don't worry o'er the future
For I know what Jesus said
And today, I'll walk beside Him
For He knows what lies ahead."*

A kind Christian brother took me aside and reminded me that none of us have to be on this journey alone. Jesus is there to lead, strengthen, comfort, and rescue us. There is no storm too mighty that Jesus can't calm. Christ knows what we are going through.

*"Many things about tomorrow
I don't seem to understand
But I know who holds tomorrow
And I know he holds my hand."*

With these thoughts being said, this older Christian man shares something with you. It is a strength that we recognize our weaknesses and accept the hand of Christ for guidance, encouragement, love, and hope.

*"Yes, I know who holds tomorrow
And I know who holds my hand."*
